The closer the retreating Huns get to Berlin, the higher the Liberty bonds go.

The American casualty list as a result of the engagement of 250-000 men in the recent battle was surprisingly small.

Lieut. Gen. Sir John Monash of the British army, is the first Jew to reach so high military rank. He is an Australian and was promoted from Colonel for gallantry at Gallipoli.

General Kilzo Otari, one of Japan's most distinguished soldiers, has been chosen to command the Japanese section and will be the ranking officer of the American and allied expedition in Siberia.

In Evansville business stops at 12:30 and for three minutes prayers for victory are offered by people everywhere, in the streets, shops or on the cars, wherever they may be.
Thousands pray.

"Marce" Henry Watterson's name is still carried at the head of the editorial page of the Courier-Journal as "editor emeritus." For the information of those who have no un-abridged dictionary at hand, let it be known that "emeritus" means "A veteran who has completed his service with honor."

In their offensive since July 18, the allies have regained approximately 1,500 square kilometers. More than 2,000 villages and towns, including Soissons, Chateau Thierry and Pirmas, are again in the hands of the allies. The front has been shortened by 53 kilometers, about 33 miles.

TREES PLANTED FOR SONS WHO ARE KILLED IN WAR.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 10.—For every Cleveland son who makes the supreme sacrifice in the war against Germany, a tree will be planted on "Liberty Row" here bearing a small bronze tablet inscribed with the name of the soldier hero.

This plan was decided upon as the most logical for paying respect to the memory of the "gold star men," and city officials decided to dedicate North Park boulevard in Shaker Lake park to the boys and change the name of the street to "Liberty Row." Planting of the "Victory Oaks" will start this fall. There are now forty-five names on the Cleveland honor list.

WOUNDED SOLDIERS
AS TOY MAKERS.

(By Associated Press.)
Detroit, Aug. 9.—The much vaunted supremacy of the German toy makers of Kremberg, is being challenged, as is the Teuton military machine, by soldiers of Uncle Sam.
In a tent on the parade ground of historic old Fort Wayne, near here, convalescent soldiers are spending along the weary hours of recovering their health by carving out rough-wood ferocious looking lions, cats and dogs, airplanes and a variety of other objects that win the hearts of children at Christmas time.

Miniature reproductions of Noah's Ark seem to be most popular among the soldier-toy makers. It is said, however, that the designers are making many improvements in the appearance of the flood survivor's refuge—so many in fact that some of the products of the ark building department will have to be placed among the stock of more modern water craft. Another toy the convalescent soldiers are turning out is a war poster puzzle. Many of the attractive posters used for various war-fund campaigns are pasted on strips of wood and sawed into small pieces of odd shapes. Furniture for doll houses also is being produced, and one soldier is making a reputation for himself at the fort by weaving rag rugs.

The toys are to be placed on sale in a downtown shop at Christmas time under the supervision of the local Junior league. The proceeds will be turned over to the toy-makers as compensation for their work.

FOCH FEELING FINE.

Paris, Aug. 9.—(Havas Agency)— Those who have met Marshal Foch in the last few days are unanimous in declaring that he is in a great good humor, according to La Libre-Premiere. Clemenceau, who dined with the marshal yesterday, said he found him radiant and looking twenty years younger than when he had last seen him.

TWO AVIATORS KILLED.

Fort Worth, Tex., Aug. 9.—Second Lieuts. Harry S. Herr and Leon W.
Aldersperger, both of Springfield, Ohio, were killed at Tallaferro field to-night when the machines they were piloting collided at an altitude of about 3,000 feet and fell to the ground. Both officers were commissioned last Saturday.

Notice To Druggists
Price Advance

For over a year now we have succeeded in maintaining our old prices, principally by virtue of a big increase in sales, which reduced our overhead cost.

For our fiscal year ending July 1, 1918, our sales amounted to over a million dollars—an increase of 58 per cent over the preceding year.

We had hoped to bridge the wage period without a change in prices on

Vick's VapoRub

but we find that our economies do not keep pace with our rising costs.
It is with sincere regret, therefore, that we are forced to announce an increase, effective August 1, which will make it necessary to retail VapoRub at 30c, 60c and $1.20 of Bulgaria is suffering from mental strain and needs absolute seclusion and rest, according to a dispatch to of state for some months.

The Government and business con-

GOOD REASON FOR DISLIKE.

(New York Morning Telegraph.)

The German war office is said to be exceedingly indignant over the employment of "black Americans" in the battle line. These black Americans are American citizens, who, now a product of the ideal system of intensive training developed in this country, are second to no fighting men on earth, and, unlike the "white Hun," they fight clean. Nobody has heard of them committing crimes; they do not attack women, and they would not, if turned loose in an enemy city, slaughter innocent children. "But, hey," as the wife of one of them is quoted as saying, "they can go some." The "black" American at home is a civilized individual he attends public school in his youth, and in his adult age turns his attention to various pursuits, the same as his Caucasian neighbor. The two races do not commingle socially to any great extent, because neither desires it. Even so, the negro is less "clannish" than many settlements of German-born residents.

The outcry from Berlin is an emphatic testimony to the Hun's mettle on the battle front and has verified the proud boast of Mrs. Henry Johnson of Albany, N. Y., U. S. A., whose husband, in "going some," found himself finally in front of a French commander who decorated him with the cross of war.

ALLIED AIR RAIDERS TERRIFY GERMANY.

London, Aug. 9.—Allied airplanes are making it hot for German towns, according to advices reaching London. Their activities have increased within the past ten days, forcing the enemy to detach a large number of fighting machines from the front in order to protect the menaced towns.

During a recent raid over Saarbrücken the allied aviators encountered forty German fighting planes.

This is regarded as an indication of the very serious morale, as well as the military effect, that the air raids are having on Germany.

LOUISIANA STORM TOLL 26.

Lake Charles, La., Aug. 9.—Further information assembled here tonight from the territory in the path of the tropical hurricane which struck southwest Louisiana Tuesday afternoon raised the total of dead to 26 and placed the number of those injured so serious as to require medical attention for 51.

Major Longenecker, commanding officer at Gerstner aviation field estimates the damage to the field to be less than $1,000,000.

PAPER FOR BLIND.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 9.—A newspaper printed in Braille type will be started here as a memorial to American soldiers blinded in the war. The paper will print matter intended to cheer up the soldiers and to aid them in establishing themselves in occupations where they can make a living.

The government of Uruguay will assume control of all telegraph and telephone services and reorganize and improve them.

OVERHAULING GUNS.

Manchester, England, Aug. 10.— Big, battle scarred guns from Flanders are returned here for overhauling and repair. One, it was noted, by a party of journalists inspecting war work in this district, had been blown in two, the effect of a shell's premature explosion. The remnant of the gun had been brought here so that experts might determine what had been the shell's defect.

In the early days of the war faulty shells were responsible for a large number of guns being destroyed as a result of "prematures." So much care is now taken in the manufacture of shells that the percentage of prematures has fallen remarkably low, the figures being only one to many hundred thousands.

An institution has been organized in California to take care of "disabled" war veterans on the brink of suicide's graves.

WAR HAS CUT POPULATION OF POLAND 3,500,000.

(By Associated Press.)

London, Aug. 9.—Polish newspapers declare that the population of the kingdom has decreased from 14-000,000 to 10,500,000 during the war, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen.
Mortality is increasing, and great numbers of Poles are leaving their country because of the rigorous conditions of life under the German rule.

TO LIBERATE, NOT ENSLAVE.

Allied troops are entering Russia to help and not a foot of territory is desired, the Russian people are told in a declaration published at Vladivostok, Murnansk and Archangel by British Representatives. It is stated that there is no intention of imposing a political system upon Russia which must work out its own form of Government.
